

Parent Education & Support Opportunities July 2009

Kids don't come with instruction manuals. But whether you're a new mom or dad, a seasoned veteran, or a non-traditional parent, there are tips and techniques you can use to make parenting easier for yourself, and living with children better for everyone in your household.

Compiled and distributed by the Cape Cod Neighborhood Support Coalition: www.capecoalition.com.

To receive this list every month by e-mail, please contact Paul Melville at 508-771-4336 or paul@capecoalition.com.

Select Ongoing Resources:

“Adoption Network Programs” sponsored by the Cape Cod Adoption Network are held at various locations across the Cape. Playgroups and programs for adoptive parents, foster parents, or adoptive parents-to-be. Information: 508-385-7815 or visit www.capecodadoptionnetwork.org for a program listing and to request a resource guide.

“Breastfeeding Warmline” sponsored by the Center for Breastfeeding, East Sandwich. All calls are free and confidential. Call anytime, day or night; all messages received after-hours will be returned at the start of the next business day: 888-890-2229 or 508-888-7794.

“Domestic Violence/ Sexual Assault Hotline”: Independence House staffs this hotline 24 hours a day, every day of the year. You do not have to leave your relationship in order to get help and you are not required to press charges against your abuser. They will not notify the police unless you request it. Independence House can help arrange for emergency safe shelter for you and your family, as well as police intervention and medical care: 800-439-6507.

“Family Support Information Line” of the Cape Cod Neighborhood Support Coalition provides free, confidential information about resources and referrals to services for families with dependent children across the Cape & Islands: 888-99-CCNSC (888-992-2672). We talk to families (and those who work with families) about “where to go for what.” There are no income guidelines and there is no intake process in order to receive information from us. Learn more about the Coalition at www.capecoalition.com.

“Fit to be Kids” at the Rehabilitation Hospital of the Cape and Islands (RHCI), 311 Service Road, East Sandwich. An outpatient weight management program for children Ages 6 - 16. Information or registration (including fee schedule): 508-833-4197.

“Food that’s IN, when school is OUT!”: The USDA’s Summer Food Service Program. Free lunch and activities for kids 18 and under at two Hyannis locations. This is a safe fun way for children to get nutritious meals during school vacation and it’s easy to participate because you don’t need to register and you don’t need to show any identification. Lunch is served Monday through Friday from noon to 1 p.m. throughout July and August. Faith Assembly Church, 154 Bears’s Way and Cromwell Court at 168 Barnstable Road (both in Hyannis). Stop by for food, friends, and fun. Information: Barnstable County Department of Human Services at 508-375-6628.

“FoodSource Hotline of Project Bread”: If you or someone you know is having difficulty making ends meet for whatever reason, Project Bread’s FoodSource Hotline can help. This hotline is the only comprehensive information and referral service for the hungry in Massachusetts. The hotline operators can provide information and screen callers for food stamp eligibility, connect callers to school meal programs, and direct callers to the best local, emergency food resources. All calls are personalized and confidential; with capacity for 160 languages. Monday - Friday, 8 a.m. - 7 p.m., and Saturday 10 a.m. - 2 p.m.: 800-645-8333.

“Kids Grieve Too!”: Children who experience the loss of someone they love often feel like the world is falling apart and that no one else knows how they feel. The Kids Grieve Too! program at Hospice & Palliative Care of Cape Cod uses a combination of sharing, expressive arts and play therapy to assist children in expressing their feelings. Their licensed therapists specialize in supporting children through loss and grief. Information: 508-957-0200 or www.hospicecapecod.org.

“Lactation Connection”: Breastfeeding mothers on Nantucket can reach a certified lactation consultant who will answer your questions and arrange to meet with you for free as needed: 774-563-1970.

“Navigating ADHD” with Tracey Bromley Goodwin, M.Ed. and Holly Oberacker, ATR, LMHC: This education/support group for parents whose children have been diagnosed with ADD/ADHD involves a 10-week series of small group meetings (6 - 10 parents/guardians). Learn the facts on what ADHD is and isn't, strategies for managing difficult behaviors, communication and conflict resolution techniques, tips for organizing your child's environment, and effective methods for building positive relationships with your child's school. Take home strategies, behavior interventions, and organizational charts. Meetings will be held in Centerville and will be offered during the day once a week, and during the evening more than once a week. FEE: $30 per session if you enroll for all 10 weeks, or $35 per session, pay as you go. For information or registration: Tracey Bromley Goodwin at 508-888-2354, or Holly Oberacker at 508-566-0242.

“Operation Military Kids”: Families experiencing the absence of a loved one due to a deployment overseas can learn what opportunities are available to them and their child(ren). Free after school and family programs are available through a grant from the Army Child and Youth Services, and hero backpacks are available to school aged children. Information: Kerry J. Bickford at 508-375-6695 or kbickford@barnstablecounty.org.

“Oral Health Programs and Services”: Dental decay is the most common chronic childhood disease; fortunately it's almost entirely preventable. Do you or your family need help accessing dental care? The Tri-County Collaborative for Oral Health Excellence (Tri-CCOHE) links children and adults with affordable dental care. Information: Cheila Smith at 508-771-1375.

“Parent Information Network (PIN)”: assists families who are challenged by children's mental health, emotional, or behavioral needs. They offer a quarterly newsletter, individual advocacy, parent/community education, and two monthly support groups (Brewster and Falmouth). Funded by the Massachusetts Department of Mental Health. Information or registration: Jennifer Ross at 508-947-8779 ext. 29.

“Parental Stress Line”: You don't have to keep going it alone, Parents Helping Parents can help. The “Parental Stress Line” is confidential, anonymous, and available 24 hours/day, 7 days/week across Massachusetts: 800-632-8188.

“The Samaritans on Cape Cod and the Islands”: Dedicated volunteers answer this crisis hotline and listen compassionately to anyone who needs to be heard or who needs to hear a consoling human voice. Some of their callers are suicidal and some simply need a non-judgmental friend to validate their feelings and listen to their concerns and fears. All calls are confidential and anonymous: 800-893-9900.

The Cape Cod Neighborhood Support Coalition (CCNSC) compiles and distributes this monthly list for the benefit of Cape and Islands families. We include workshops, classes, support groups, and other resources that we believe adhere to best practices; however, we suggest that you consider the appropriateness of program content for your family's needs and values.

This list is neither exhaustive nor an endorsement of any program or provider.
